Description
Dress in dark wine red silk velvet. Strapless bodice with topstitching. Long lavishly flaring skirt with three-part construction. Two shorter sections in front, one longer one in back with hint of a train. Black nylon crinoline petticoat with three gold lamé plisse flounces peeking out from under the skirt's asymmetric hemline.

Remarks
The dark lady is back, in strapless version with long elegant evening gloves and again the glimpse of gold plisse flounces. All marks of an exquisitely enticing femininity.
